

The Cask of Amontillado by Edgar Allan Poe
The Monkey's Paw by W.W. Jacobs
The Lottery by Shirley Jackson
The Conqueror Worm by Edgar Allan Poe
Who's Afraid by L. Frank Baum

After the Show...

- 1. Compare sets of each story. What effects were used to create the mood for each story? What effects were common to each setting?
Level: 4 - Analysis
- 2. Trace the changes in the following characters: Tessie; Montresor; Mr. White
Level: 6 - Evaluation
- 3. What are the common and varying characteristics of each character?
Level 1 - Knowledge
- 4. Irony is a literary device. Select two stories and compare the use of irony in each.
Level 2 - Comprehension
- 5. Identify and discuss the undercurrent of evil as portrayed in each story.
Level: 3 – Application
- 6. Recreate the coat of arms of the Montresor family. Why is this an important symbol in the story?
Level: 5 – Synthesis
- 7. Being that L. Frank Baum wrote The Wizard of Oz, what topics in his poem surprised you?
Level: 6 – Evaluation
- 8. The performance started and ended with a poem. How did those poems add to your experience of seeing these stories?
Level: 6 – Evaluation
- 9. The people in The Lottery said that was a tradition in their village. What is a tradition? What traditions does your family or school follow?
Level: 3 – Application
- 10. If you had three wishes would you use them or pass them on to someone else? Why?
Level: 3 – Application